- (d) The Subscriber agrees to:
 - (i) expressly inform individuals that their Personal Information (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Personal Information pertaining to the Subscriber or its employees or agents) may be disclosed by PEXA to a recipient outside Australia and, if practicable, specify the countries in which such recipients are likely to be located; and
 - (ii) procure consent from individuals to such overseas disclosure of their Personal Information (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Personal Information pertaining to the Subscriber or its employees or agents), having first expressly informed each individual that if he or she consents to such overseas disclosure, neither PEXA nor the Subscriber will be liable for a breach of Privacy Laws by the overseas recipient of the Personal Information.

12. OWNERSHIP OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

12.1 Intellectual Property in the Services

- (a) Subject to clause 12.3(a) of this Participation Agreement, the Subscriber shall not have any ownership rights in any Intellectual Property brought into existence by PEXA in providing the Services, including Services commenced or enhanced after the date of this Participation Agreement.
- (b) Subject to clause 12.3(a), to the extent that the Subscriber at any time acquires any right, title or interest in any Intellectual Property in the Services, the Subscriber, by the Participation Agreement, assigns to PEXA all such rights, title and interest in that Intellectual Property.

12.2 Formalities

The Subscriber will execute all documents and do all acts and things required by PEXA for the purpose of giving effect to clause 12.1 of this Participation Agreement.

12.3 Ownership of Pre-Existing IPR

- (a) Each party acknowledges and agrees that, unless otherwise expressly stated in this Participation Agreement, no Pre-Existing IPR of either party is assigned or otherwise transferred by reason of this Participation Agreement.
- (b) If and to the extent this Participation Agreement provides that any Intellectual Property in the Services vests in the Subscriber, PEXA acknowledges that the Subscriber may require a licence to use PEXA's Pre-Existing IPR to the extent necessary to enable the Subscriber to use the Services for the purpose for which they are supplied under the Participation Agreement, and accordingly PEXA grants such a licence on the basis that the licence is non-exclusive and non-transferable.

13. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INFRINGEMENTS

13.1 Indemnity for infringement

- (a) PEXA will indemnify the Subscriber against liability or loss under or in connection with any claim made by a third party against the Subscriber regarding its use of the Services or any Intellectual Property in accordance with the Participation Agreement.
- (b) PEXA's obligation to indemnify the Subscriber in sub-clause 13.1 will be reduced to the extent that:
 - (i) the Subscriber fails to comply with its obligations in sub-clause 13.2 below; and / or
 - (ii) the circumstances in sub-clause 13.3 apply.

13.2 Subscriber obligations

The Subscriber must:

- (a) notify PEXA in writing as soon as reasonably practicable after it becomes aware of any claim under clause 13.1 of this Participation Agreement;
- (b) on leave being granted by a court, give PEXA the option to conduct the defence of such a claim, including negotiations for settlement or compromise prior to the institution of legal proceedings, provided that the Subscriber may direct PEXA in the conduct of the defence or settlement of any claim to the extent reasonably necessary:
 - (i) to the extent reasonable, to protect the reputation of the Subscriber; and/or
 - (ii) to ensure the Subscriber continuity of the use of the Services in accordance with the Participation Agreement; and/or
 - (iii) to determine the amount of any settlement sum to be granted;
- (c) provide PEXA with reasonable assistance in conducting the defence of such a claim, subject to the Subscriber being reimbursed by PEXA for the costs of providing such assistance;

- (d) permit PEXA to modify, alter or substitute the infringing part of the Services, at its own expense, to render the Services non-infringing; and
- (e) authorise PEXA to negotiate and procure on behalf of the Subscriber a licence or other authority to enable the Subscriber to continue the use of the Services.

13.3 Exclusions from indemnity

PEXA will not indemnify the Subscriber to the extent that such infringement, suspected infringement or alleged infringement arises from the Subscriber's use of the Services in a manner or for a purpose not reasonably contemplated by the parties.

14. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

14.1 No responsibility for third party statements

The Subscriber acknowledges that PEXA accepts no responsibility for statements made by third parties in connection with PEXA or the Services. The Subscriber further acknowledges that Sponsors are independent third parties and not agents of PEXA.

14.2 Satisfaction of applicable regulatory requirements

The Subscriber warrants to PEXA that to the best of its knowledge it will satisfy and continue to satisfy all applicable requirements (including regulatory requirements) to utilise the Services and participate in the ELN (including those required to complete Conveyancing Transactions in the Active Jurisdiction/s nominated by the Subscriber).

14.3 SOE Requirements

The Subscriber acknowledges that PEXA can only provide the Services contemplated under this Participation Agreement where the Subscriber has met and continues to meet the SOE Requirements.

14.4 Subscriber's acknowledgements about Conveyancing Transaction information

The Subscriber acknowledges that:

- (a) before Lodgment, PEXA need not examine or check for accuracy or otherwise any information that the Subscriber enters into an Electronic Workspace or provides to PEXA;
- (b) PEXA need not examine or check for accuracy or otherwise any information that any third party provides to PEXA in connection with a Conveyancing Transaction; and
- (c) any data supplied from the Land Registry and information to support Lodgment entered into an Electronic Workspace by the ELN may not include all data in the Titles Register.

14.5 Exclusion of implied conditions and warranties

To the full extent permitted by law, all conditions and warranties which would otherwise be implied in the Participation Agreement (by statute, general law, customs or otherwise) are expressly excluded.

15. LIABILITY

15.1 Liability of PEXA to the Subscriber where PEXA fails to perform the Services

Subject to clauses 15.2, 15.3 and 15.4:

- (a) PEXA will be liable to the Subscriber for any loss or damage that the Subscriber may suffer or sustain arising from a breach by PEXA of its obligations under this Participation Agreement; and
- (b) the amount of any such loss or damage that is recoverable by the Subscriber from PEXA will be calculated in accordance with the general law.

15.2 No warranty as to accuracy of data

Except as otherwise provided in the Service Charter, PEXA does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of any data provided to PEXA by any government agency, State or Federal (including, but not limited to, a Land Registry or Duty Authority).

15.3 Reduction of PEXA's liability

PEXA's liability to the Subscriber under this clause 15 will be reduced to the extent that:

- (a) the Subscriber's loss is caused or contributed to by:
 - (i) the Subscriber's breach of this Participation Agreement or by the negligence of the Subscriber; or
 - (ii) the act or omission of any government agency, State or Federal (including, but not limited to, a Land Registry or Duty Authority or the Reserve Bank of Australia); or
- (b) the Subscriber did not take reasonable steps to mitigate any potential loss.

15.4 Subscriber to notify PEXA

The Subscriber must:

- (a) promptly notify PEXA on becoming aware of an actual, suspected or proposed claim against the Subscriber that will or is reasonably likely to cause a claim to be made against PEXA by any person (including the Subscriber);
- (b) at PEXA's expense, and upon PEXA agreeing to unconditionally indemnify the Subscriber and the Subscriber's client in respect of any such claim, do all things necessary to assign to PEXA the absolute right to conduct the defence of the claim against the Subscriber or enter into settlement discussions with the claimant against the Subscriber; and
- (c) at PEXA's expense, provide PEXA with such assistance as it requires in conducting the defence of the claim or the settlement discussions, but only to the extent that such assistance does not cause a breach of the Subscriber's obligation to maintain privilege or client confidentiality.

16. SUSPENSION, RESTRICTION AND TERMINATION

16.1 Suspension or restriction by PEXA

- (a) Without limiting the generality of any other provision in this Participation Agreement (including PEXA's termination rights in clause 16.2 below):

- (i) PEXA will suspend or restrict the Subscriber's use of the Services immediately by notice in writing if PEXA or the Subscriber receive a direction from the Registrar (or Land Registry) pursuant to the ECNL; and
 - (ii) PEXA may, at its discretion, opt to suspend or restrict the Subscriber's use of the Services immediately by notice in writing if:
 - (A) the Subscriber is in material breach of the Participation Agreement, the Participation Rules or any Laws relevant to the use of the Services, and such breach:
 - (aa) cannot be remedied by the Subscriber; or
 - (bb) if it can be remedied:
 - (a) the Subscriber fails or refuses to do so within a period of not less than 20 Business Days of notification by PEXA, such notice specifying the nature of the breach and requiring the Subscriber to remedy the breach; and
 - (b) the Subscriber has failed, within a reasonable period of time in all the circumstances, to agree an appropriate remediation strategy with PEXA to rectify the breach;
 - (B) PEXA considers it reasonably necessary to do so to maintain the integrity and security of the ELN;
 - (C) the Subscriber owes unpaid PEXA Fees which are overdue by over 30 calendar days, and/or unpaid Land Registry Fees which are overdue by more than 6 calendar days (in the case of restriction); or
 - (D) the Subscriber owes unpaid PEXA Fees which are overdue by over 45 calendar days, and/or unpaid Land Registry Fees which are overdue by more than 20 calendar days (in the case of suspension).
- (b) Where the Subscriber's use of the Services is restricted pursuant to sub-paragraphs (a)(i) or (a)(ii) above:
- (i) the Subscriber must either:
 - (A) complete any Conveyancing Transactions that are Outstanding Conveyancing Transactions as at the time of the restriction; or
 - (B) Unsign any documents or Settlement Schedules in respect of Conveyancing Transactions that are Outstanding Conveyancing Transactions as at the time of the restriction, and do anything else in connection with the ELN which they could reasonably be expected to do in order to comply with any terms of the restriction, and to minimise inconvenience to any other person; and

 - (ii) the Subscriber's ability to Digitally Sign Electronic Workspace Documents will be suspended on such conditions as PEXA may advise the Subscriber in writing from time to time.
- (c) Where the Subscriber's use of the Services are suspended pursuant to sub-paragraphs (a)(i) or (a)(ii) above:

- (i) all Conveyancing Transactions that are Outstanding Conveyancing Transactions at the time of the suspension will not proceed; and
 - (ii) the Subscriber's, a User's or a Signer's access to and use of the ELN will be suspended on such conditions as PEXA may advise the Subscriber from time to time.
- (d) PEXA will use its best endeavours to exercise its rights under this clause 16.1 before having recourse to its termination rights under clause 16.2. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and for the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Participation Agreement requires or obliges PEXA to exercise its suspension or restriction rights under this clause 16.1 as a prerequisite to exercising its termination rights under clause 16.2.

16.2 Termination by PEXA

Without limiting the generality of any other provision in this Participation Agreement, PEXA may terminate the Participation Agreement immediately by notice in writing if:

- (a) the Subscriber is in material breach of the Participation Agreement, the Participation Rules or any applicable Laws, and such breach:
 - (i) cannot be remedied by the Subscriber; or
 - (ii) if it can be remedied:
 - (A) the Subscriber fails or refuses to do so within a period of not less than 20 Business Days of notification by PEXA, such notice specifying the nature of the breach and requiring the Subscriber to remedy the breach; and
 - (B) the Subscriber has failed, within a reasonable period of time in all the circumstances, to agree an appropriate remediation strategy with PEXA to rectify the breach;
- (b) the Subscriber owes unpaid PEXA Fees which are overdue by over 60 calendar days, and/or unpaid Land Registry Fees which are overdue by more than 30 calendar days;
- (c) the Subscriber becomes or resolves to become subject to any form of insolvency administration, and each such triggering event is deemed to be a breach of an essential term of the Participation Agreement;
- (d) PEXA considers it reasonably necessary to do so to maintain the integrity and security of the ELN;
- (e) PEXA is required to do so following a direction by the Registrar or Land Registry (including pursuant to the ECNL);
- (f) PEXA is required to do so otherwise by law; or
- (g) there is a material change to legislation or draft legislation, or to the Participation Rules or Operating Requirements that has a materially adverse commercial effect on PEXA during the term of this Participation Agreement. PEXA may only terminate pursuant to this paragraph (g):
 - (i) after endeavouring, in good faith, to negotiate an appropriate service variation, and for the avoidance of doubt, a decision by PEXA to terminate pursuant to this sub-paragraph may be contested by the Subscriber in accordance with the dispute resolution process set out in clause 24 of this Participation Agreement; and

- (ii) in accordance with its Transition Plan.

16.3 Termination by the Subscriber

- (a) The Subscriber may terminate this Participation Agreement immediately by notice in writing if:
 - (i) PEXA is in material breach of the Participation Agreement and such breach:
 - (A) cannot be remedied by PEXA; or
 - (B) if it can be remedied:
 - (aa) PEXA fails or refuses to do so within a period of not less than 20 Business Days of notification by the Subscriber, such notice specifying the nature of the breach and requiring PEXA to remedy the breach; and
 - (bb) PEXA has failed, within a reasonable period of time in all the circumstances, to agree an appropriate remediation strategy with the Subscriber to rectify the breach; or
 - (ii) PEXA becomes or resolves to become subject to any form of insolvency administration, and each such triggering event is deemed to be a breach of an essential term of the Participation Agreement.
- (b) The Subscriber may terminate this Participation Agreement for no cause and without penalty by giving 30 Business Days' written notice to PEXA.

16.4 Effect of termination

Each party's further rights and obligations under the Participation Agreement will cease immediately on the expiry or termination of the Participation Agreement, provided that the expiry or termination will not affect the accrued rights and obligations of the parties as at the date of expiry or termination.

16.5 Consequences of termination and/or suspension

- (a) If notice is given to the Subscriber pursuant to paragraph 16.2 of this Participation Agreement, PEXA may, in addition to terminating the Participation Agreement:
 - (i) retain any Charges paid for Services already provided or rendered; and
 - (ii) pursue any additional or alternative remedies provided by law.
- (b) The Subscriber agrees that:
 - (i) in the event of termination by PEXA of this Participation Agreement, or suspension by PEXA of the Subscriber's ability to use the Services, PEXA may not allow an Outstanding Conveyancing Transaction initiated by the Subscriber to proceed; and
 - (ii) PEXA shall not be responsible for or accept any liability for any cost, loss or damage resulting from a Conveyancing Transaction not being allowed to proceed in the circumstances described in sub-paragraph (i) above, except to the extent that such cost, loss or damage is solely due to PEXA's fraud or gross negligence.

16.6 PEXA's obligations on termination

If notice is given to PEXA pursuant to paragraph 16.3 of this Participation Agreement by the Subscriber, PEXA must (subject to PEXA's obligations in the Operating Requirements) promptly return (or, at the Subscriber's option, destroy and certify the destruction of) any of the Subscriber's property in the possession, custody or control of PEXA.

16.7 Subscriber resignation

If the Subscriber resigns as a Subscriber, the Subscriber must, prior to its resignation, either:

- (a) do everything reasonably necessary to complete any Outstanding Conveyancing Transactions; or
- (b) withdraw from any Outstanding Conveyancing Transactions, and do anything else in connection with the ELN which they could reasonably be expected to do in order to minimise inconvenience to any other person.

PART C – GENERAL

17. INSURANCE

- (a) PEXA must hold and maintain for the Term the insurances PEXA is required to hold and maintain as an ELNO under the Operating Requirements or by law.
- (b) The Subscriber must, on or before the Commencement Date and thereafter upon reasonable request from PEXA, provide PEXA with documentary evidence (including, where applicable, certificates of currency and any other documentation as reasonably requested by PEXA) of the Subscriber's compliance with the Insurance Rules.

18. FORCE MAJEURE

18.1 No liability for delays

Neither party will be liable for any delay or failure to perform its obligations pursuant to this Participation Agreement to the extent of that such delay is due to a Force Majeure Event.

18.2 Suspension of obligations

If a delay or failure of a party to perform its obligations is caused or anticipated due to a Force Majeure Event, the performance of that party's obligations will be suspended provided that such delay or failure has been notified to the other party and the affected party takes all reasonable steps to minimise the disruption to and resume the performance of its affected obligations.

19. SUB-CONTRACTING

- (a) Nothing in this Participation Agreement precludes PEXA from subcontracting the performance of its obligations to a third party.

- (b) PEXA will remain primarily liable for the performance of all its obligations under this Participation Agreement and will in addition be liable for the acts, defaults and neglects of any subcontractor or any employee or agent of the subcontractor appointed by PEXA as if they were the acts, defaults or neglects of PEXA or the employees or agents of PEXA.

20. PRECEDENCE AND SEVERANCE

- (a) This Participation Agreement includes the Service Charter, the Pricing Policy, the Security Policy and all schedules and attachments.
- (b) Subject to clause 3.1, where any conflict occurs between the provisions contained in two or more of the documents forming this Participation Agreement, the document lower in the following order of precedence will where possible be read down to resolve such conflict. If the conflict remains incapable of resolution by reading down, the conflicting provisions will be severed from the document lower in the following order of precedence without otherwise diminishing the enforceability of the remaining provisions of that document:
 - (i) Attachment C to this Participation Agreement (if applicable);
 - (ii) the body of this Participation Agreement and Attachments A and B;
 - (iii) the Service Charter; and
 - (iv) the Pricing Policy and the Security Policy.

21. ASSIGNMENT AND NOVATION

21.1 Assignment

- (a) The Subscriber must not assign, novate, transfer or otherwise deal with its rights under the Participation Agreement or its subscription to the ELN.
- (b) Subject to PEXA obtaining prior approval from the Registrar, PEXA may assign, novate, transfer or otherwise deal with its rights under this Participation Agreement. The Subscriber must do all things required to give effect to any assignment, novation, transfer or other dealing by PEXA under this clause, including (if required by PEXA) the execution of a deed. For the avoidance of doubt, PEXA is not permitted to assign its rights and status as an ELNO.

22. VARIATION

22.1 Variations with immediate effect to Participation Agreement

- (a) PEXA may only add to, vary, modify or delete ("Change") any term or terms of this Participation Agreement with immediate effect where:
 - (i) the Change is necessary, in PEXA's reasonable opinion, to comply with the ECNL, the Operating Requirements (including any relevant requirements in connection with risk management and with PEXA's Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery Management Program), Participation Rules, a change in any relevant Australian Law or any relevant regulatory change, or to preserve the integrity of the network or the Service; or
 - (ii) the Change is outside PEXA's control.

- (b) Where a Change is as described in paragraphs (a)(i) or (a)(ii) above, PEXA will provide the Subscriber with notice of the Change within a reasonable period before the Change is implemented.

22.2 Variations with immediate effect to operational documents

- (a) PEXA may Change any term or terms of the Service Charter, the Security Policy or the Pricing Policy (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Charges) with immediate effect where:
 - (i) the Change is necessary, in PEXA's reasonable opinion, to comply with the ECNL, the Operating Requirements, Participation Rules or any relevant regulatory change, or to preserve the integrity of the network or the Service;
 - (ii) the Change is outside PEXA's control;
 - (iii) the Change is an amendment to the Pricing Policy, except for any amendments to the notice period for changes to the Charges contained within the Pricing Policy (for the avoidance of doubt, this does not apply to any changes in Land Registry Lodgment Fees, over which PEXA has no control);
 - (iv) the Change is an amendment to the Service Charter and results in enhancements to the Services including (but not limited to) new functionality, new service offerings, additional jurisdictions added as Active Jurisdictions, and increased operating hours, but where the Change has no material impact on the Subscriber's obligations under this Participation Agreement; or
 - (v) the Change is an amendment to the Security Policy and results in a minor change to the software requirements for utilising the Services, but has no material impact on the Subscriber's obligations under this Participation Agreement.
- (b) PEXA must comply with the following notice requirements in relation to the Changes described in clause (a):
 - (i) Where a Change is as described in paragraphs (a)(i) or (a)(ii) above, PEXA must undertake best endeavours to provide the Subscriber with notice in writing of the Change before the Change is implemented or, if that is not feasible in PEXA's reasonable opinion, then within a reasonable period of time after the Change is implemented;
 - (ii) where a Change is as described in paragraph (a)(iii) above, PEXA must provide the Subscriber with notice in writing of the Change within a reasonable period of time after the Change is implemented;
 - (iii) where a Change is as described in paragraph (a)(iv) above, PEXA must provide the Subscriber with notice in writing of the Change (with notice by email to be deemed sufficient); and
 - (iv) where a Change is as described in paragraph (a)(v) above, PEXA is not required to provide the Subscriber with notice of the Change.

22.3 Material Changes only to be made following consultation

- (a) Where a Change is:
 - (i) a material reduction in the Services that is due to a reason within PEXA's control;
 - (ii) an amendment to the Security Policy and results in a major change to the software requirements for utilising the Services; or
 - (iii) an amendment to the Subscriber's Attachment C (as applicable),

PEXA must first, in good faith, consult peak industry bodies relevant to Subscribers (including, without limitation, the Australian Bankers' Association, the Law Council of Australia and the Australian Institute of Conveyancers) before implementing the Change.

- (b) For Changes described in paragraph (a) above, PEXA and the Subscriber must agree on a time frame for implementing the Change.
- (c) Where a Change to the Participation Agreement is required as a result of:
 - (i) a change within PEXA's business and operations which has a material impact on the rights and obligations of the parties to this Participation Agreement (including, without limitation, on the liability provisions);
 - (ii) a change in any relevant Australian Law (which does not require immediate compliance and which therefore does not fall within sub-paragraph 22.1(a)(i)); or
 - (iii) a change to the Settlement Terms and Conditions liability provisions;

PEXA must first, in good faith, consult peak industry bodies relevant to Subscribers (including, without limitation, the Australian Bankers' Association, the Law Council of Australia and the Australian Institute of Conveyancers) before implementing the Change.

22.4 Effect of variation

- (a) Notwithstanding clause 16.3, where the Subscriber does not, within a reasonable period, agree with or accept:
 - (i) a Change made by PEXA with immediate effect under sub-clauses 22.1 or 22.2, or following consultation under 22.3; or
 - (ii) a time frame for implementing a Change referred to above, either party may terminate this Participation Agreement by notice in writing given to the other party.

- (b) The Subscriber agrees that the provisions of paragraph (a) are reasonable in the circumstances, given PEXA's role as an ELNO with responsibility for managing the ELN and all Subscribers.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, in exercising its right to terminate this Participation Agreement under paragraph (a), the Subscriber may nevertheless complete any Conveyancing Transactions which are Outstanding Conveyancing Transactions at the time of termination, and termination does not take effect until all Outstanding Conveyancing Transactions are completed or withdrawn.

23. TECHNOLOGY AND RELEASE MANAGEMENT

23.1 Changes to the ELN

- (a) The Subscriber acknowledges that the core ELN application as available to all Subscribers (excluding any integration services) will only ever be offered as one version, that the scope and content of the ELN may change from time to time, and access to the ELN and the Services under this Participation Agreement will be to the system which PEXA generally makes available to other users of the ELN. For the avoidance of doubt:
 - (i) nothing in this Participation Agreement prohibits PEXA from making technological changes to the ELN; and
 - (ii) PEXA is not required to provide notice of such changes where such changes do not impact the use of the Services by the Subscriber and other Subscribers.
- (b) The Subscriber may be required to modify the systems or access points through which the Subscriber may access the PEXA System, an Electronic Workspace or the ELN to accommodate Major Releases, Minor Releases and Scheduled Maintenance.
- (c) The Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that PEXA shall not be responsible for or accept any liability for any of the Subscriber's costs associated with making the modifications required under sub-clause (b).

24. DISPUTES

24.1 Application

Any dispute or difference between the parties arising under or in connection with this Participation Agreement, including any dispute or difference as to the formation, validity, existence or termination of the Participation Agreement ("Dispute") will be resolved as set out in this clause 24 of this Participation Agreement.

24.2 Notice of dispute or difference

- (a) If a Dispute arises a party will commence the process contained in this clause for its resolution by giving notice ("Dispute Notice") to the other party. The party sending the Dispute Notice is the Referring Party.
- (b) The Dispute Notice will:
 - (i) be in writing;
 - (ii) state that it is given pursuant to this clause 24.2; and
 - (iii) include or be accompanied by reasonable particulars of the Dispute.

24.3 Negotiation between parties' representatives

- (a) Within 5 Business Days (or such other period as is reasonable in the circumstances) of a party issuing a Dispute Notice, both parties will ensure that their respective representatives meet with a view to resolving the Dispute.
- (b) If, and to the extent that, the Dispute is resolved, the parties will immediately detail their agreement in writing. This document will clearly state which parts of the Dispute are resolved, and the agreed basis for its resolution.

- (c) If a written agreement is not produced pursuant to paragraph (b) in relation to all or part of the Dispute within five Business Days after the Dispute Notice has been given (or such other period as is reasonable in the circumstances), the Dispute, or the part of the Dispute in respect of which there is no written agreement produced, is deemed to be unresolved.
- (d) If the Dispute is not resolved, within 5 Business Days (or such other period as is reasonable in the circumstances) of the meeting referred to in paragraph (a), the Subscriber (or a senior manager of the Subscriber as appropriate) and the General Manager (or equivalent) of PEXA will meet to resolve the dispute.
- (e) If the Dispute remains unresolved after a period of 5 Business Days following the meeting described in paragraph (d) above, either party may pursue court proceedings.

24.4 Alternative dispute resolution and other mechanisms

Nothing in this clause 24 prevents the parties from:

- (a) pursuing alternative dispute resolution by agreement in relation to a dispute; or
- (b) devising a suitable dispute resolution mechanism in relation to multiple claims brought by third parties arising from:
 - (i) a single incident; or
 - (ii) the same act or omission of one of the parties.

24.5 Continuance of performance

Despite the existence of a Dispute each party will continue to perform its obligations under this Participation Agreement in relation to the subject matter of the Dispute. If the Subscriber is receiving other paid services from PEXA (other than standard conveyancing services), the Subscriber must continue to make payment for such other services as required.

24.6 Summary or urgent relief

Nothing in this clause will prevent either party from instituting court proceedings to seek urgent injunctive, interlocutory or declaratory relief in respect of the Dispute.

25. NOTICES

25.1 How to give a notice

- (a) A notice, consent or other communication under the Participation Agreement is only effective if it is in writing, signed by or on behalf of the person giving it;
- (b) addressed to the person to whom it is to be given; and
- (c) either:
 - (i) delivered or sent by pre-paid mail (by airmail, if the addressee is overseas) to that person's address; or

25.3 Authority to issue or receive notices

The parties agree that the following individuals will be entitled to issue and receive notices on behalf of each respective party:

- (a) for PEXA, the Chief Operating Officer (or such other senior executive holding an equivalent position); and
- (b) for the Subscriber, its nominated representative.

26. GENERAL

26.1 Governing law

- (a) This Participation Agreement is governed by the laws of the state of Victoria, Australia.
- (b) Each party submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the state of Victoria, and any court that may hear appeals from any of those courts, for any proceedings between the parties arising under or in connection with this Participation Agreement.

26.2 Audit

- (a) PEXA or its suitably qualified independent third party nominee may audit the Subscriber's compliance with this Participation Agreement or the Participation Rules, and the Subscriber will provide PEXA with access to records and premises as reasonably necessary to complete such an audit, provided that:

- (i) there is a limit of one audit during each 12 month period of the Term, starting from the Commencement Date;
 - (ii) PEXA will bear the full cost of the audit; and
 - (iii) the Subscriber's obligation to provide such access will be subject to its confidentiality obligations owed to Clients.
- (b) For clarity, the restriction set out in sub-paragraph (a)(i) above does not apply to any audit that a regulator of PEXA, including without limitation the Registrar, requires it to perform.

26.3 Record keeping

The Subscriber acknowledges that to the extent PEXA is required under the Operating Requirements to retain Workspace Data, including Business Activity Logs, documents and Transaction Audit Records, which may include data or other information provided to PEXA by the Subscriber or its customers, it may do so.

26.4 Co-operation with independent enquiries and certification

- (a) The Subscriber will make available to PEXA and the relevant Independent Expert or Registrar (or any other person conducting a compliance examination on behalf of the Registrar), all information reasonably required as part of an Independent Certification or a Compliance Examination Procedure.
- (b) PEXA and the relevant Independent Expert or Registrar may retain information obtained under clause (a) of this Participation Agreement to the extent required by:
 - (i) the Registrar in accordance with the Compliance Examination Procedure; or
 - (ii) the Independent Expert to complete Independent Certification.

26.5 Risk management

The Subscriber acknowledges that PEXA is required under the Operating Requirements to establish, implement, operate, monitor, review, maintain and keep current a documented Risk Management Framework to enable the identification and mitigation of risks in its operation of the ELN.

26.6 Business continuity

The Subscriber acknowledges that PEXA is required under the Operating Requirements to establish, implement, operate, monitor, review, maintain, test and keep current a documented, detailed and comprehensive Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery Management Program.

26.7 Non-Use of Electronic Workspace
